Czech spa has a rich history and is based on the use of natural medicinal resources, with a significant share of direct medical care and comprehensive approach to treatment admissions. The trends of Czech spa are affected by more and more foreign clients, which compensates for shortfalls of domestic clientele. Russian guests are one of the most important groups of Czech spa clientele. The article discusses the development of trends of Czech spas, with an accent on Russian spa clientele. Trends analysis was processed using the method of scenarios where opinions of experts are compared with the results of surveys of trends.
